

Hey...therapists...

Are you considering providing supervision online?

Are you overwhelmed by all of the technology needs?

Do you wonder about how the documentation or evaluations might be different?

Are you concerned about the ethics of telesupervision?

Are you struggling with how to market, implement or make the switch to telesupervision?

Look no further, Best Practice in TeleSupervision is here to help! It is a hands-on manual designed to provide you with all the information you need to provide telesupervision. The manual also comes with 17 FREE handouts!

Here is a sneak peek at The Table of Contents:

Chapter One:	Introduction
Chapter Two:	Definition of TeleSupervision
Chapter Three:	Advantages and Challenges of TeleSupervision
Chapter Four:	Effectiveness of TeleSupervision
Chapter Five:	Today's Supervisee
Chapter Six:	Today's Clinical Supervisor
Chapter Seven:	Computer Hardware and Software
Chapter Eight:	The Internet
Chapter Nine:	Video Conference Platforms
Chapter Ten:	Telephonic Supervision
Chapter Eleven:	Electronic Payment
Chapter Twelve:	Before the First TeleSupervision Meeting
Chapter Thirteen:	The Orientation Meeting
Chapter Fourteen:	TeleSupervision Formats
Chapter Fifteen:	TeleSupervision Techniques
Chapter Sixteen:	The Structure of Ongoing TeleSupervision Meetings
Chapter Seventeen:	TeleSupervision Documentation Requirements
Chapter Eighteen:	Evaluating the Supervisee and the Supervisor
Chapter Nineteen:	Working with the Difficult Supervisee
Chapter Twenty:	Marketing a TeleSupervision Practice
Chapter Twenty One:	Motivo
Chapter Twenty Two:	Conclusion

About the Author

Since 1999, Marilyn has dedicated her career to working with couples and families. She has successfully worked with a variety of individual, couple and family issues such as infidelity, ineffective communication, conflict management issues, sexual issues, divorce management, anger, depression, anxiety, post-traumatic stress disorder, self-esteem, grief, rape, attention deficit disorders, sleep issues, parenting struggles, blended family issues, incest, family of origin issues, family conflict, etc. Marilyn began providing telemental health service delivery in 2015 and telesupervision in 2020.

She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and Master of Science degree in Child Development and Family Studies from Purdue University. Marilyn is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in the states of Indiana and Illinois and is an out-of-state telehealth provider for the state of Florida. She is also a Clinical Fellow of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT), an AAMFT Approved Supervisor and a Certified Gottman Seven Principles Leader.

Marilyn is a member of Alpha Chi National College Honor Society and a charter member of the Omega Chapter of Delta Kappa, an international marriage and family therapy honor society. She is also a past member of the Indiana Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, the Illinois Association for Marriage and Family Therapy and a past Board Member and Region Representative for the Indiana Association for Marriage and Family Therapy.

Marilyn has published, presented nationally and/or presented internationally on the topics of healing from the trauma of infidelity, telemental health service delivery, clinical documentation, clinical supervision, sexuality, family therapy, ethics, adolescence, gang behavior and residential care. She has also taught at Purdue University and Illinois Institute of Technology.

Currently, Marilyn provides individual therapy, pre-marital counseling and couples therapy via telemental health service delivery as well as telesupervision and teleconsultation.

CEU Opportunity

Please contact your state's professional licensing board to see if this self-directed study is eligible for CE hours.

To Order

This manual is currently being offered through Thrive For Life Online Counseling. The price of the manual is only $30.00.

To order the manual, please use this link:

<https://square.link/u/GxWZPKs4>

This manual is in PDF format and delivered electronically so please remember to include your email address when ordering. You will receive an email with the PDF from the author (Marilyn@thriveforlifecounseling.com) within 24 hours of your purchase.